

First JOINT Perinatal Grantees Meeting

Hepatitis B and HIV

Atlanta, GA

April 30 – May 2, 2007

Working Together for Improved Outcomes

Overall 2007 Meeting Goals

1. Foster sharing of best practices among Perinatal Hepatitis B and HIV grantees
2. Support collaborative partnerships between perinatal hepatitis B and HIV grantees
3. Share essential information between CDC and individual grantee groups

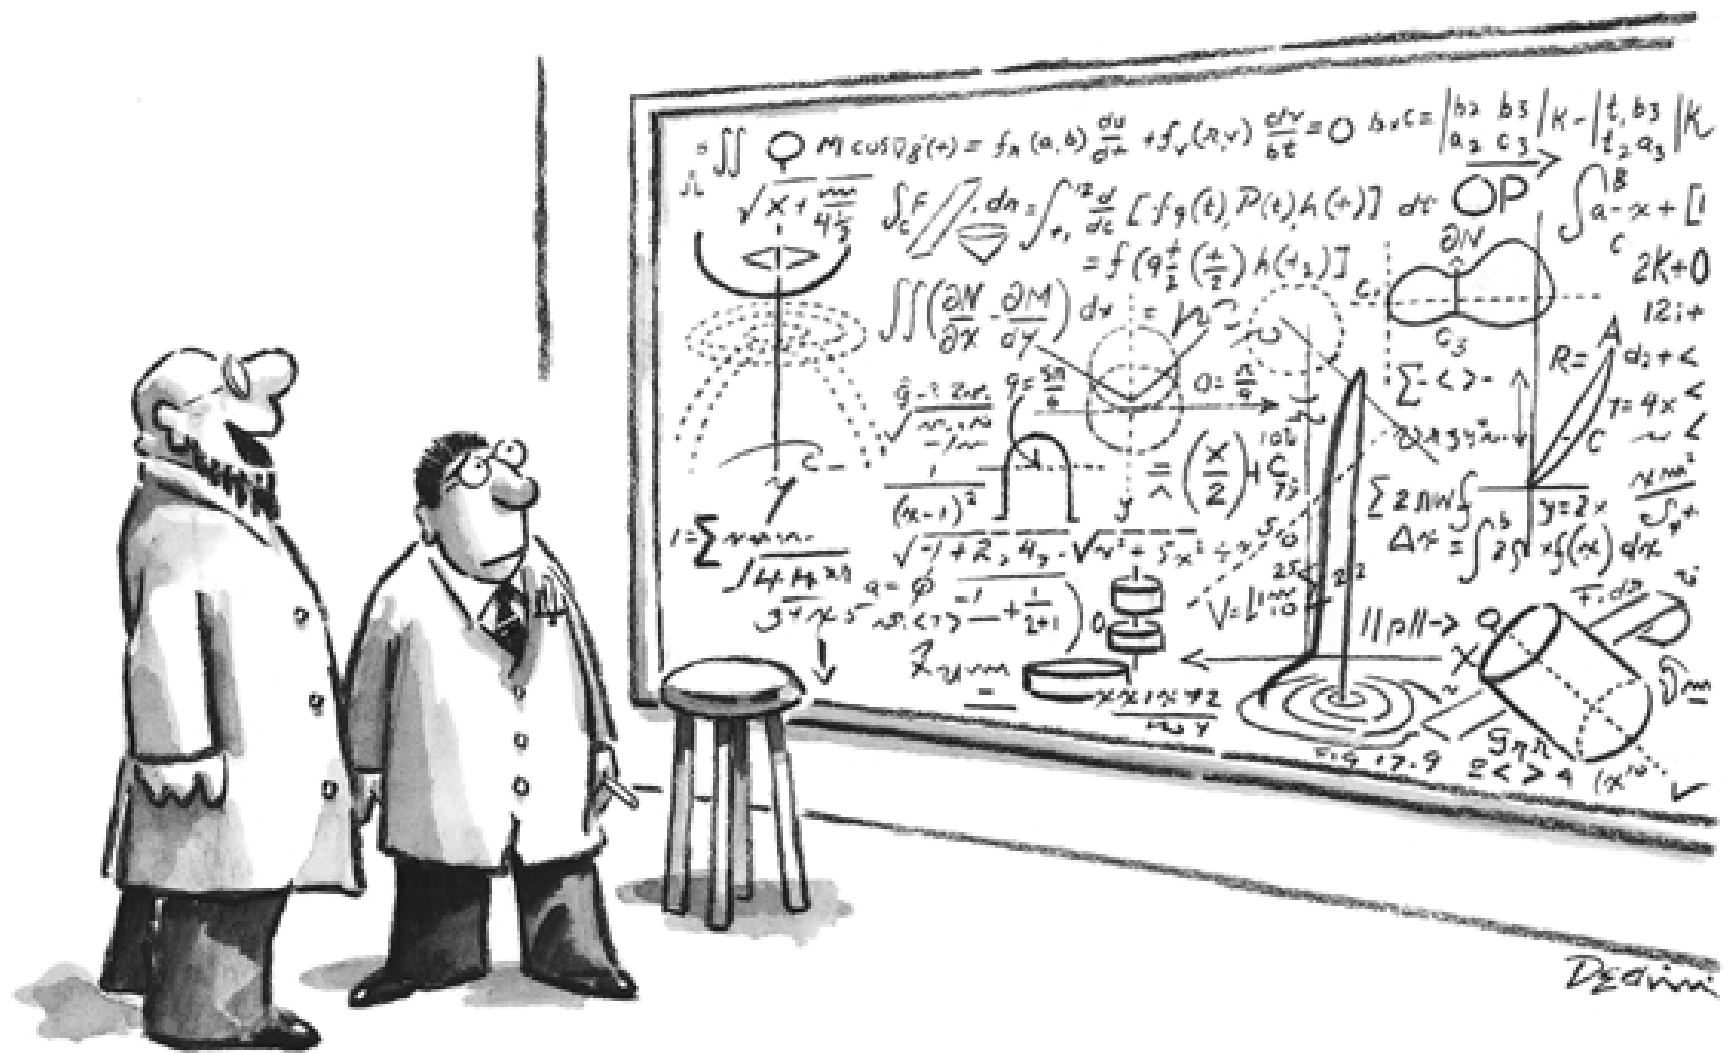

About this Meeting....

- Many kinds of folks:
CDC, state and local grantees,
national organizations
- 3 days interwoven
choreography
- Common horizon:

Integration of efforts to eliminate perinatal HIV and hepatitis B in the United States

"Hey, no problem!"

More About this Meeting

Our “Strategic Imperatives”:

science, surveillance, and maximizing combined impact, shared accountability, joint leadership

Our Meeting Team:

Margaret Lampe, Jill Clark,
Allan Taylor, Suzanne Whitmore,
Susan Wang, Lisa Jacques-Carroll,
Pat Simpson, Chad Abresch,
Magda Peck, Emily Friedman

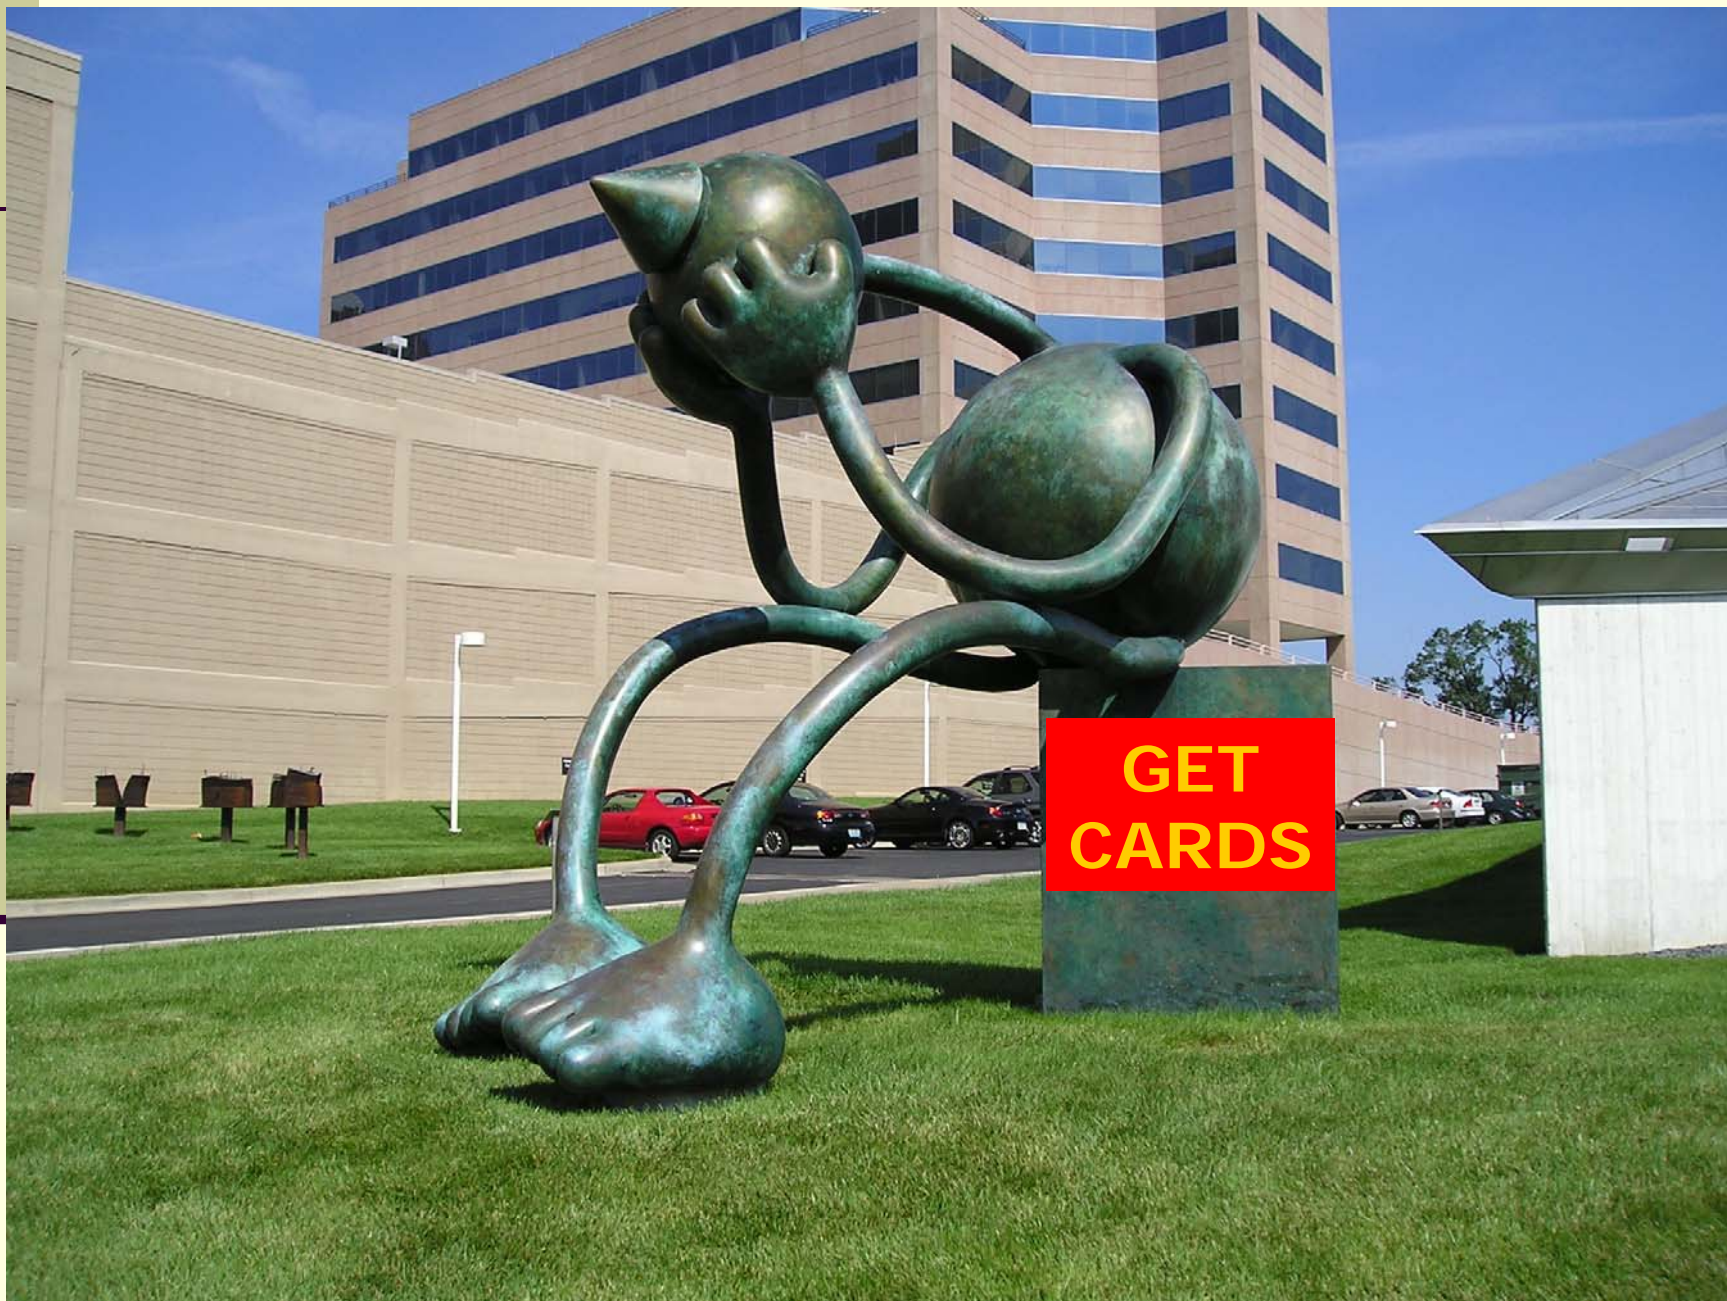

"I think you should be more explicit here in step two."

And More About this Meeting

- Assigned “Learning Teams”
- Navigation Exercises, posted “products”
- 2 main tracks: Hepatitis B and HIV (prevention and surveillance)
- Meeting synthesis, summing up (Emily Friedman)

CityMatCH Team

Magda Peck ScD

CEO/Senior Advisor, CityMatCH

Professor and Associate Chair for Community Health Department of Pediatrics, Univ of NE Medical Center

Pat Simpson MPH

Acting Exec Director, CityMatCH

Chad Abresch MEd

Program and Policy Manager, CityMatCH

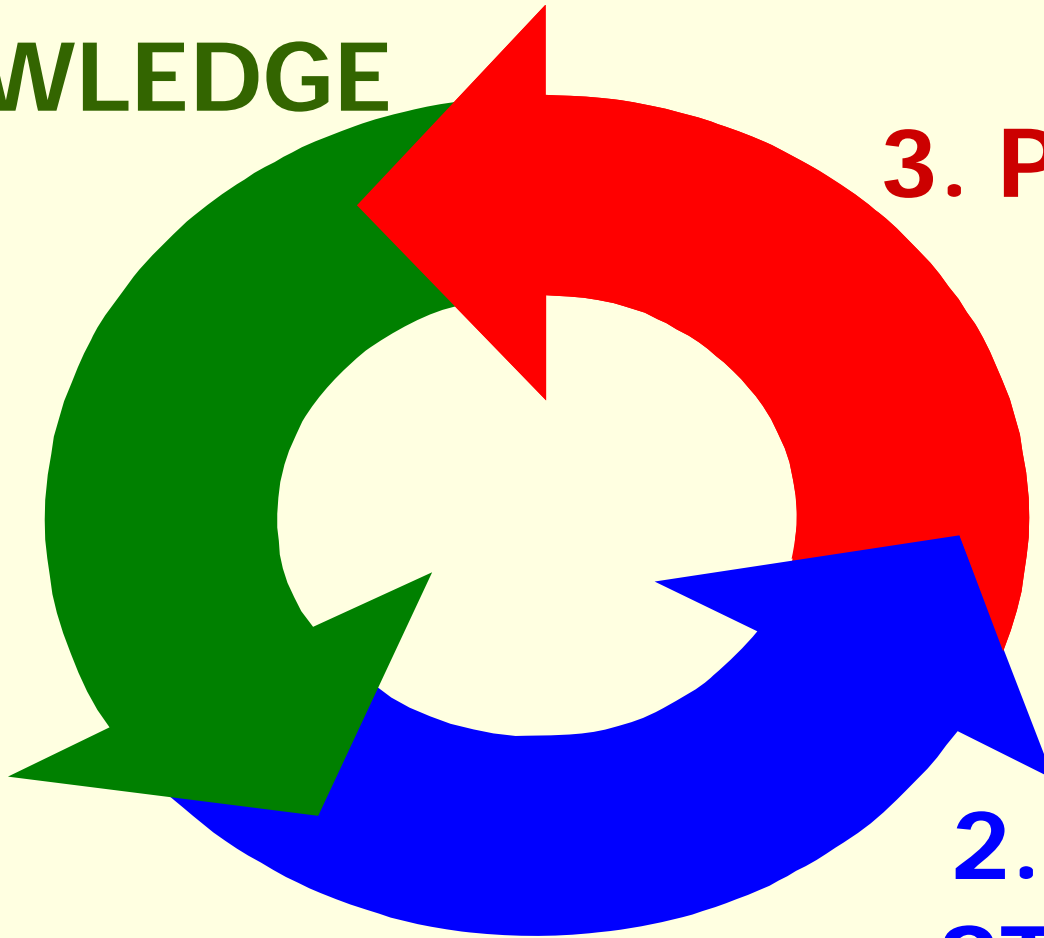

402.561.7500

www.citymatch.org

Addressing Perinatal HIV and Perinatal Hepatitis B, Together

1. KNOWLEDGE BASE

3. POLITICAL WILL

2. SOCIAL STRATEGY

Must Combine 3 Things To Get Shared Results

1. What we
(all) know

3. What we get others to do

2. What we do, together